SUPERVISION ADJUSTMENT

On October 14, 2005, Daniel Gordon was sentenced by the Honorable Gerard E. Lynch to forty-two (42) months imprisonment, followed by a three (3) year term of supervised release after pleading guilty to Wire Fraud 18 U.S.C. 1343, a Class B Felony; Money Laundering 18 U.S.C. 1956(a)(1)(B)(1), a Class C Felony; Conspiracy to Falsify Books and Records 18 U.S.C. 371, a Class D Felony. In addition, the Court ordered the special conditions of no new credit charges, a $100,000 fine and compliance with the forfeiture order in the amount of $43 million. A $300 special assessment was also imposed. On December 17, 2009, this case was assigned to the Honorable Naomi Reice Buchwald.

On May 5, 2010, Gordon was released from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons, at which time he commenced his three (3) year term of supervised release. To date, the releasee has been compliant with the conditions of supervised release, he maintains a stable residence and employment and satisfied his $300 special assessment and $100,000 fine imposed by the Court. Additionally, in October 2009, the releasee was placed on Low Intensity supervision, which only requires Mr. Gordon to report annually and submit monthly supervision reports.

On July 23, 2010, the probation office submitted a request to Judge Buchwald, requesting that Gordon be granted permission to travel to Dubai from August 16, 2010 to August 22, 2010. It is worthy to note that Judge Buchwald approved said request. However, on July 30, 2010, Gordon's attorney, Alan Levine, forwarded a request to Judge Buchwald on Mr. Gordon's behalf requesting permission for him to travel to Capetown, South Africa from August 8, 2010, to August 9, 2010 and London England from August 10, 2010, to August 11, 2010 for business purposes.

On August 2, 2010, Gordon requested permission to travel to London, England from August 7, 2010, to August 12, 2010. Notably, Mr. Gordon does not need to travel to Capetown, South Africa and/or his original requested destination of Dubai.
